For discussion board assignments, click the Discussions link at the left side of your course page, then click on the discussion forum you're looking for. At the top of each forum click the box to have the option to view the rubric.

If the instructor has graded the assignment you will be able to view each criteria and the points awarded.
