Provisional Requirements for Undergraduate Students

- To be eligible for full admission, provisionally admitted undergraduate students are required to:
 - Complete nine (9) credit hours within their first two consecutive trimesters
 - Earn and maintain a cumulative GPA of 2.00 or higher at the end of the second trimester
 - Earn a cumulative course completion rate of 66.66% or higher at the end of the second trimester

Provisional reviews will run at the end of the student's second trimester, and if they are not meeting the standards above, they are withdrawn.

Provisional Requirements for Graduate Students

- To be eligible for full admission, provisionally admitted graduate students are required to:
 - Complete six (6) credits in their first two consecutive trimesters
 - Earn and maintain a cumulative GPA of 3.00 or higher at the end of the second trimester
 - Earn a cumulative course completion rate of 66.66% or higher at the end of the second trimester

Provisional reviews will run at the end of the student's second trimester, and if they are not meeting the standards above, they are withdrawn.

Graduate Provisional Student with Prerequisite Course Requirements

Graduate students admitted provisionally due to low undergraduate GPA AND prerequisite coursework must meet satisfactory academic progress requirements as well as prerequisite requirements. Essentially you will need to meet 2 benchmarks to be fully admitted.

- 1) Undergraduate Prerequisite Course Requirement - Undergraduate prerequisite courses need to be completed within 1 year from the date of enrollment, earning a 3.00 GPA upon completion of all prerequisite classes.
- 2) Provisionally Admitted Graduate Student Requirement - once the prerequisite courses are completed students must begin graduate coursework in the next available term and are required to meet provisional requirements in two consecutive trimesters. They will be required to:
 - Complete six (6) credits in their first two trimesters
 - Earn and maintain a cumulative GPA of 3.00 or higher at the end of the second trimester
 - Earn a cumulative course completion rate of 66.66% or higher at the end of the second trimester

Students who are administratively withdrawn for not meeting prerequisite or provisional requirements may re-apply after a period of 30 days following their withdrawal date.
