

What is a StudentAid.Gov Account?

Last Modified on 02/06/2025 1:47 pm MST

Your StudentAid.gov account your unique log-in credential used to access Federal Financial Aid information applications such as the FAFSA, Entrance Counseling, Master Promissory Note and other financial aid documents you may need to complete. The StudentAid.gov account has replaced the use of the FSA ID.

Here are instructions for creating an account:

- Step 1: Go to <https://studentaid.gov/> and click "Create an Account"
 - Please Note: Only the owner of the account should create the account. This information should never be shared
- Step 2: Follow the prompts to Create an Account

Create an Account

Whether you're a student, parent, or borrower, you'll need to create your own account to apply for, receive, and manage your federal student aid.

Get Started

Already have an account? Log In

What You Can Do With Your Account

You must have an account to do the following:

- Fill out the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA®) form online
- Complete other online forms (such as the Master Promissory Note) required to receive aid
- Review the federal student aid you've received

What You'll Need

- Your Social Security number (if applicable)
- Your own email address

-
- Step 3: Review your information then read and accept the terms and conditions
- Step 4: Confirm your email address using the secure code which which will be emailed to the address you entered in Step 2 above. Once you verify your email address, you can use it instead of your username to log into Federal Aid websites

You will be able to use your StudentAid.Gov account immediately to complete and sign the FAFSA.
