ACHE Discount

As a CSU-Global student, you are able to receive a student discount on membership with the American College of Healthcare Executives (ACHE). The discount brings yearly membership rates from $375 down to $75 per year!

There are several benefits of membership with ACHE for CSU-Global Students. They are:

- ACHE is the premier professional healthcare management association for healthcare professionals to join and to engage.
- Cutting-edge continuing education, career services /advice, and networking resources.
- Provides ample professional and career opportunities where you can network and meet with healthcare executives in your local healthcare market, through attending local ACHE Chapters.

If becoming a member and then pursuing a prestigious credential such as a “Fellow” of ACHE sounds like something that interests you, please contact the Program Chair, Arletta Wallace (arletta.wallace@csuglobal.edu) for more information.

To apply with a discount please
