2021-22 Verification Requirements

If you were selected for Verification on your 2021-22 FAFSA, then you may have been asked to submit a Tax Return Transcript from your 2019 taxes (or your parent's/spouse's 2019 taxes). If you/your parent/spouse were not required to file 2019 taxes, you will need to provide additional documents to complete your verification.

Below is a list of required documents for non-tax filers. Please click on the links to other articles if you need help navigating the IRS website or don't understand the listed items:

- One of the following items directly from the IRS:
 - Verification of Non-Filing Letter
 - A Tax Return Transcript/Account Transcript which indicates: "No Record Found" or "No Transcript on File"
 - IRS Tax Form 13873

2022-23 Verification Requirements

If you were selected for Verification on your 2022-23FAFSA, then you may have been asked to submit a Tax Return Transcript from your 2020 taxes (or your parent's/spouse's 2020 taxes). If you/your parent/spouse were not required to file 2020 taxes, you will need to provide additional documents to complete your verification.
