

Tuition Appeal

Last Modified on 10/03/2023 10:46 am MDT

Tuition Appeal

You can discuss a Tuition Appeal with your success counselor if you have faced extenuating circumstances in a term causing you to miss the drop deadline and withdraw unexpectedly or not pass a course. An approved appeal may result in a credit (all of or a portion of) of your tuition charges from the term in question to be applied to a future term's tuition.

Appeals must be submitted no later than 30 days past the end of the eight-week term in question.

You will be required to submit official documentation supporting your reason for having to withdraw.

The kinds of things that may be approved include, but are not limited to: accidents, serious document-able illness, death in the family, etc.

Situations which are are not approved include, but are not limited to: weddings, vacations, shifts in work assignments, previously scheduled surgeries, or other events in which you were aware and could make appropriate decisions and schedule adjustments prior to the term drop deadline.

Detailed information can be found at the Appeals Center - Tuition Appeal

*Please contact your success counselor to discuss your specific situation and to see if you might be an appropriate candidate for a Tuition Appeal.
