

How Can I Resume Good Academic Standing while I am in SAP?

Last Modified on 09/18/2024 9:29 am MDT

How Can I Resume Good Academic Standing while I am in SAP?

If you are in a SAP Warning, SAP Probation, or SAP Suspension status, it is recommended that you schedule an appointment with your Success Counselor to discuss options and put together a plan. You can also reach out to your Success Counselor with additional questions or concerns. Here are a few things you can do to return to Good Academic standing:

- Earn passing grades
  - Undergraduate students need at least C's or better to pass all classes, though a higher grade may be required to move out of SAP Status.
  - Graduate students need at least B-'s or better to pass all classes, though a higher grade may be required to move out of SAP Status.
- Be cautious of your Completion Rate
  - Your Completion Rate (number of credits earned divided by credits attempted) must be 66.66% or higher.
- Repeat failed courses immediately
  - \**Be sure to speak with your Success Counselor if you plan to repeat a course in which you earned a "D" or a "C" as this is calculated differently than a failing grade.*
- Consider reducing your course load if you are taking concurrent classes
  - Remember that withdrawing after the drop/add period will negatively impact your Completion Rate
- Consider taking some time off if you have personal, medical, or work-related Issues at this time
  - Remember, you have one full trimester to return to Good Academic Standing.
- Contact your Success Counselor if you need to adjust your academic plan. In some circumstances, your plan may be revised.
- Use your resources such as the Writing Center, tutoring, and the library.

Related Articles:

What is SAP Warning?

What is SAP Probation?

What is SAP Suspension?

---