

NASFAA Resources for Staff & Students

Last Modified on 05/11/2026 10:04 am MDT

NASFAA is a leading national organization for financial aid professionals, serving as a cornerstone of the higher education community. They are widely recognized as the gold standard for financial aid expertise, ensuring that all information is accurate, up-to-date with federal regulations, and easy for students and families to understand.

The below resources come directly from NASFAA's One Big Beautiful Bill Act Web Center. It is recommended that you access these resources directly from NASFAA as information is subject to change and materials are updated.

Federal Loan Resources:

- What Graduate Students Need to Know
- What New Parent Borrowers Need to Know
- What Current Parent Borrowers Need to Know
- 2026-27 & Beyond - Graduate/Professional Student Borrowing Limits

Private Loan Resources:

- Private Education Loans: Information for Students & Families
 - Private Loan Checklist for Prospective Student & Parent Borrowers
-